of interest to every man and woman in America

NEXT MONDAY, November 2nd

THE most astonishing demonstration ever held will be given throughout the country by dealers in Victor products. It will begin at 9 A. M. and continue throughout the day It will introduce the most important contribution to music since the invention, 30 years ago, of the Victor Talking Machine

Don't miss it! It will be one of the most amazing demonstrations you have ever heard. It will establish new standards of comparison and change your whole present viewpoint on the subject of music in the home.

The more critical your attitude toward music, the more astounded you will be. You will hear a range of tone, a perfection of tone, a richness and fullness in every note that will move you to the edge of your chair with an eagerness hitherto unknown.

A few people have heard this new instrument, and to say that they have been amazed, is but a meager description. Fritz Kreisler, Ernestine Schumann-Heink and John Philip Sousa have listened and marveled.

November 2nd has been set aside as Victor Day—as the day on which this new instrument will be presented to the public. All classes of music will be played and sung by Victor's own incomparable artists Instrumental solos. Vocal selections. Choruses. Bands. Dance music. In sufficient variety to disclose the amazing versatility of the instrument.

No matter what you plan to do next Monday, do not miss this demonstration. You will never forget it.

Go to the nearest dealer in Victor products any time after nine o'clock during the day of November and. Even though you may be away from home, there will be a demonstration nearby which you can attend. In every city, in every state in the United States, this miraculous instrument will amaze and capture all who hear it

Victor Day-November 2, 1925-is destined to be a day that will stand out in the history of music.

It is essential that similar preoccupancy should not become accepted among the peoples comprising the League of Nations as a species of jurisprudence, as it would be dangerous. Under the pretext of legitimate defense there could result engagements which, even though limited, would be extremely painful, and which in addition, once declared could reach proportions that would take them beyond the control of the country which thought it was acting in its legitimate defense. The League of Nations, through the Council and by the methods of conciliation which it has at its disposal, offers all peoples the means to avoid such painful events. MR. LONGWORTH, FASCIST.

I am dreadfully afraid Mussolini might tell the League to go to hell.

The statement quoted was made by Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, here to address the National Association of Manufacturers, when asked for his opinion as to the League of Nations' efforts to compose the conflict between Greece and Bulgaria. Should the League succeed he did not think it would be a convincing test. They are weak nations, Greece and Bulgaria. But if Italy were one of the nations involved! We have Mussolini's answer-or at least Mr. Longworth's judgment of what that answer would be.

Perhaps Mr. Longworth is right. Certainly in the Corfu incident Mussolini did just about tell the League to go to hell. He also told the Council of A League of Nations which can stop one war, preg- Ambassadors and the World Court and the whole him his ransom.

While attorneys for the men are rguing their case in the court-room, "Dinty" Colbeck, "Chippy" Robinson and the other seven con victed in the case are at their vari ous jobs in the Federal peniten-tiary at Leavenworth, where Judge FitzHenry committed them imme-diately after he had passen sen-ence of 25 years upon them. The nine men were convicted of robbing a mall messenger at Staun-ton, Ill., in May, 1923, and the at-torneys are basing their appeal on charge of errors on the part of Judge FitzHenry.

One of these, it is said, was his efusal to allow them properly to peach the character of Ray Renard, former Egan gangster, who 'snitched" on his erstwhile . compatriots and sent them to the pententiary. The defense contends it should have been allowed to show in great detail that his reputation for truth and veracity was bad.

As a matter of fact, several witnesses, including St. Louis policemen, were allowed to testify that his reputation was bad, but the Court refused to let them answer the question, "Would you believe him under oath?"

The defense also contents that Judge FitzHenry's instruction to the jury on the alibi was too se-

MEASURE TO LEGALIZE

Maesure Before Aldermen Today on Parking Restriction-Proposes Fines.

A bill legalizing Traffic Council iles governing parking on certain owntown streets and streets adacent to Union Station will be presented to the Board of Aldernen for a vote today. The bill is resented as an emergency measare and, if passed by the Board of Aldermen, will become an ordinance upon receiving the approval of the Mayor.

The proposed ordinance prohibits parking on the south side of Market street, between Eighteenth and Twentieth streets, except in two spaces of 173 feet and 125 fee respectively. Parking is prohibited on the west side of Eighteenth street for a distance of 200 feet south of Market street, and limits parking to one hour from this point o Clark avenue.

In the downtown section parking is prohibited on Spruce street be-tween Seventh and Ninth streets, and on the west side of Seventh street, between Spruce and Poplar. Not more than three vehicles will be allowed to be parked on the south side of St. Charles street between Eighth street and the north ntrance to the new Hotel Mayfair, southwest corner Eighth and St. Charles, if the ordinance is passed. The bill also prohibits parking in the east side of Theresa avenue on the east side of Theresa avenue between Washington and Locust boulevards. The penalty proposed for violation of the restrictions is a fine of $5 to $500. HEARST AND HYLAN INDORSE SENATOR WALKER FOR MAYOR They Say Tammany Nominee Has Indicated Intent to Pursue

cial to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Mayor Hylan, unexpectedly announced yesterday that he would support Senator Walker for mayor and the other nominees on the Democratic city ticket. The statement was made in response to a direct question asked by a reporter.

The mayor put his promise of allegiance to the Tammany ticket on two grounds: first, that he was Democrat in practice as well as in declaration; second, because Walker and his running mate had ndicated to the mayor's satisfaction their intent to carry out the policies of Hylan's own administration.

Wm. Randolph Hearst's New York American today also advised support of Walker on the ground he was in accord with Hylan's general plans and more particularly with the subway policy which Hylan has advocated.

Many bettors believe that the odds of 7½ to 1 that Walker will beat Waterman are prohibitive. Practically no Waterman money has made its appearance, one firm. S. Fried & Co., reporting that still has uncovered $75,000 to $10,000 that Walker will beat Wat erman. There is a considerable amount of bets to be placed at even money that Walker's vote will ex-ceed Waterman's by 275,000 and on the other hand that his plurality will not reach the 350,000 mark. HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES TO BE LIMITED TO INNOCENT FUN Police Are Given Orders to Prevent Pranks Involving Destruction of Property.

Plenty of innocent fun, but no sm tomorrow night-halloween-Chief of Police Gerk insisted today, issuing an order commanding police officers to make this particular halloween "an exception." in minimizing depredations and property destruction.

"It appears that in the past," he order read. "a deluge of complaints relative to destruction of property was a regular sequence of halloween. It is not desired that your commands interfere with harmless, innocent fun. However, hoodlumism and depredation which will result in increasing the already aggravated traffic hazards that exist, by throwing of bread boxes, signs and other movable objects into the streets, and the wilful destruction of property, thereby causing financial loss, will not be tolerated."

Chief Gerk added that the throwing of any movable object into the streets would be included in the ban. He mentioned also that tampering with automobiles, such as deflating tires, would be regarded as injury to property.

We're not getting all the tire business in town. We never expect to. But we're getting our share and our business is growing constantly.

The reason for this is that car owners have found our locations are convenient, our service prompt, efficient and courteous, our merchandise of the highest quality, and our prices surprisingly low.

As a matter of fact, and we realize it sounds pretty strong, if every car owner in town who is not buying from some one of us really knew what we had to offer, we'd come pretty close to having a monopoly on the tire business here.

We honestly believe this, because we're already selling to scores of the brainiest tire buyers in town-smart people who look twice and think three times before they buy anything.

If we can satisfy them and keep on doing it-we can please you, too.

The text of the resolution as given out with the statement was:
"Whereas a cardinal principle of the Universalist Church is that of allegiance to the spiritual authority and leadership of Jesus, to be interpreted by its members as their consciences may direct and:

"Whereas there are those among its members who interpret this authority as a complete condemna-tion and renunciation of violence between nations, as well as between individuals, operative even in time of warfare itself.

"Therefore, be it resolved that the fifty-fifth convention of the Universalist Church recognizes as being in accord with our fundamental principles the right of members of this church to refuse, on conscientious grounds, to participate in any warfare."

EXHIBITORS CANCEL SPACE IN PHILADELPHIA FAIR ROW

Action Follows Resignation Director After City Curtails Building Plans. ly the Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. $0 .- The cancellation of agreements for exhibition space and threatened suits against the city by concessionnaires who say they have spent large sums of money for equipment, followed the resignation yesterday of Col. David C. Collier of San Diego, Cal., as director-general of the Philadelphia sesqui-centennial ex-

Action against the city was threatened because of the curtailment in the building program ci the exposition, which is to be held next year in observance of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This also was given by Collier as his reason for resigning.

The program was cut at the suggestion of Mayor Kendrick from seven buildings to cost $12,000,000 to two exhibition buildings and un auditorium, at a total cost of $3. 000,000. Kendrick announced that he would assume charge of the exposition plans until another director-general is appointed. U. S. OIL WILL BE EXHAUSTED IN 25 YEARS, BRITON SAYS ormer Chief Mine Inspector Also Predicts World's Supply Will Last Only 100 Years.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A prophecy that United States oil resources will be exhausted in 25 years was made here yesterday by Sir Richard Redmayne, coal expert and former chief inspector of mines, testifying before the Royal Commission in vestigating the coal industry. He said he believed the world's oil supply will last only for 80 or 100 years more.

In anaylzing the world coal situation, Sir Richard expressed the bellef that the United States will try to capture the British coal ex-port market. The world coal output is increasing, he said, but British and British empire production is declining.

America, he continued, is respon sible for half of the increased output outside the British empire, but this increase, he explained, is con ported. In view of this fact, he said America's productive capacity is far beyond her actual produc-

what is the matter with Harriet?" $1 HARRIET was once the life of the two tablespoonfuls daily-in party. Once. Today her friends have a way of "pitying her" wherever she goes. Her sallow cheeks, her lifelessness, her circled eves. Sluggish, always dead tired, Harriet stumbles on down the pathway of social decline—needlessly!

In the world about us, there are thousands of men and women who, like Harriet, suffer from constipation and pay its hideous price. Constipation is the world's most universal disease. But constipation can be permanently relieved and its devastations thwarted.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a safe, sure way of relieving constipation permanently. It will drive the sluggishness out of the system and restore that vivid vitality so necessary to perfect health and worldly triumph.

This is how Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings relief and why it is safe and sure: as it journeys through the body its fiber remains un-

KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT BRAN

To be effective, bran fiber must go through the various digestive processes without submitting to any of them. It must pass through the entire alimentary tract without its form being changed.

After the saliva has acted upon it, it passes through the stomach and into the intestine where every part which is not fiber is absorbe In ALL-BRAN the quantity of fiber is so great that it furnishes bulk enough to prevent and relieve constipation. In a part-bran food, the quantity of fiber is so small that there is only a puny amount to do a ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Demand it.

changed. It remains a bulk food, as doctors call it. ALL-BRAN sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It stimulates the flow of the digestive juices. It absorbs and carries moisture into the intestine and prompts it to natural, healthy action. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works as nature works. You never have to increase the amount eaten.

How different from habit-forming pills and drugs, whose dose must be increased as time goes on. Drugs and pills also irritate the intestine and defeat their own purpose.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or your grocer refunds the purchase price. Eat chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it any way you like it-with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals: in soups, cooked with hot cereals, or made into the recipes given on every package. A delicious dish with fruit!

Beware of a part-bran product

Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A product which is only part bran is not dependable. It can bring, at best, only partial results. Too many times it may bring none at all. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is ALL-BRAN. That is why doctors recommend it. Why take chances?

Kellogg's is the original and only ALL-BRAN. In thousands of successful cases it has proved its worth. Let it bring permanent relief from constipation for you and all your family. Your grocer sells Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Get a package today. Served in leading hotels and restaurants.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Because of an unusual provision in a divorce decree that separated her husband, Harry C. Powers, and his first wife, Ann Murdock, actress, his second wife believes she can have her marriage annulled. She is now suing to recover $150,-000 in securities she lent him. Powers, a stock broker, and his first wife, Florence Grell, were divorced 12 years ago in Nevada. The decree gave him custody of a son, now 17 years old, and provided that the son should never be taken within 100 miles of New York.

Attorneys for Miss Murdock, who is suing under her real maiden name of Irene Ann Coleman, claim that this provision has been violated, that the divorce therefore may have been automatically pullified and that her own secret marriage to Powers in September 1924, consequently is void because Powers still is married to his first In the meantime, the first Mrs. Powers has remarried.

Attorneys for Powers told the Court yesterday that the troubic started because the actress found she disliked her husband's rela-tives. Miss Murdock denies that relatives-in-law are the cause of the estrangement. She accuses Powers of ill treatment of a mental rather than physical nature. She lent him $150,000 in securi ties three months before her marriage, while she was in a sanitarium seeking rest, in order that he might get a partnership in a financial house and be enabled to marry her, she testifled yesterday. "Oh, I was so easy for him," she

An attorney for Powers says that his client still loves Miss Murdoci in spite of her temperament and would be glad to effect a reconciliation. The disputed bonds, the attorney said, are on deposit with the firm of which Powers is member and which is named jointly with him in Miss.Murdock's suit. The bonds are part of the estate bequeathed to Miss Murdock by Alf Hayman, theatrical producer and assistant of Charles Frohman.

NO INDICTMENTS EXPECTED IN RIVER CLUBHOUSE KILLING

Prosecuting Attorney Mueller of St. Louis County today said that, unless unexpected evidence develops, no indictments will be returned by the grand jury in the investigation of the death of Fred Hassenlopp, who suffered a fractured skull and was fatally injured in a fight in a clubhouse at Glencoe, on the Meramec River, last

May.
There were three or four men involved in a drunken brawl, Pros-ecutor Mueller said the investigaon showed, but it was impossible to fix the responsibility. Patrick O'Brien, 61 years old, who has been in jail since May 27 in connection with the investigation, was taken before the grand jurors yesterday. He was one of the men engaged in the fight, but has said he remem-

What's to Be Done?

A N official of a major league club, complaining of the difcan pitch, commented on the fact ball" has almost gone out of use. He said:

"Pitchers of today, the young ones, are eternally trying to throw the ball past the batsman, who, on his part, is just as eternally trying to swing from the hip and knock 'em dead

Neither the batter nor the pitch er of today has the versatility of the men of a few years ago Feeding a man a fast ball and a fast curve gear him up to hit-ting speed delivery. In the old days men like Eddie Plank and many others, confronted with this situation, then changed the pace on the batter and had him breaking his back.

Slow Ball Ruined Babe.

E DDIE PLANK almost scored a no-hit game with a slow ball on one occasion. Hubert Pruett fanned the mighty Babe Ruth 10 times in 13, with a change of pace. And the same mighty Babe lost a New York series for the Yanks in 1922 beause, at a critical point in the play, a slow ball ordered by McGraw made him slam the wind foolishly. The pitcher without a change pace is badly handicapped and all youngsters with ambiion should acquire this asset. At the same time, the batters ought to cultivate something other than the "kill it" idea.

While Missourt and Iowa State are fighting for the conference lead, Kansas and Drake play at Lawrence, Oklahoma and braska meet at Lincoln, and Grin nell and Oklahoma A. & M. clash at Stillwater. Most important of these games is the Oklahoma-Husker contest, since each has lost but one game, and victory for either might yet launch it as a contender for the championship, should both Ames and Missouri fal-

Cold, stormy weather this week has somewhat handicapped Missourt's preparation for the Ames game, and the Tigers have shifted from one field to another repestedly in search of a spot dry enough to gain a footing as they attempt to add to their bag o tricks on offense, or to perfec their defense against the lowa State plays which the freshman squad has displayed against them. The team, Coach Gwinn Henry beleves, is in better shape than was a week ago when it entered the Aggie game. All Regulars in Shape. Henry has worked with his men daily this week; while last week he was out of the city until the day before the game, and then came home to find Smith's illness had made a complete rearrangement of his line necessary, with no time in which to drill his men for their new duties. This week Smith will be back at center, and while he is still weakened from his attack of influenza, he is expected to be going good tomorrow, and his return will make it possible for the Missouri line to resume its regular complevion. Studebaker is still out of tackle with an injured knee, but Stafford, another regular and a eteran, will take his place, while Lindenmeyer and Richerdson may be counted on to handle the punt-

The Tiger backfield which started against the Aggies will probably take the field against Ames, Coach Henry said today. The new comdination worked so well at Manhattan that it undoubtedly will be given the first opportunity to carry the fight to the Iowans. Jackson loomed as a star of the first magnitude at defensive fullback, while on offense he accounted for much more substantial gains than he has ever registered when playing quarter, while Stuber, calling sighals on offense, ran the team per-fectly, and then turned in a splendid game as a defensive half. Clark's speed, also introduced into the lineup by the shift, paid good dividends.

Against the Aggles Henry used but two substitutes, but given a dry field, against Ames, he undoubtedly will make use of his heavy backfield reserves, with Thomas Casteel, O'Sullivan, Moulder and several others getting their oppornity to deliver

AM A FOOD DEMONSTRATOR—a humble calling, you may think. But I don't think so. Because my work helps people, by the L thousands, to better health and greater happiness.

I "demonstrate" Postum. I spend some time at Expositions and Food Fairs, and the rest of the year here at Battle Creek. People visit me, from every State in the Union. I personally prepare Postum for each one, and serve it. After a sip or two they usually say, "Mrs. Blanchard, this is the finest drink I ever

They seem surprised because Postum is so good. They possibly have been thinking of it as "something for sick folks"-like a patent medicine. How funny! Of course Postum is good for the sick, but it's even better to help people keep well. Why shouldn't it have a wonderful flavor? It is made of wonderful materials whole wheat and bran, skillfully blended and roasted.

How much better to enjoy Postum at mealtime, than a drink containing caffein—a drug. A drug that causes so much nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, and indigestion. A drug that every school child is taught to avoid!

You try Postum, too! Try it for thirty days-long enough to show results. Note how much better you look, how much better you feel, at the end of the test. Then decide!

I will start you on the test with one week's free supply, and my personal directions for preparing it. Or if you want to begin today, get Postum at your grocer's. It costs much less than most other hot drinks-only one-half cent a cup!

You can be free of the effects of caffein-easily! Make the thirty-day test right away!

And now, suddenly and as if at a signal, the crowds beneath broke forth into cheering also. The room vibrated to it, the very air shook forth with the sound of men's voices mingled with the shriller eries of women. She turned, wordess, and beckoned to his father, who joined her at the window.

The crowds, denser now, had parted and made a narrow lane through the midst. They stood packed on either side, cheering. fluttering handkerchiefs and scarfs anything!-and turning the corner came a carriage, with four ment and pleasure.

The carriage moved very slowly. She could see it all in lamplight and daylight, like a bright picture. "Does he look well, Fanny?" Can you see him? My ewes are dim."

Very well, sir. He is in uniform. He has friends with him." Her voice was as quiet as when she read aloud in the parsonage Her heart seemed to have

Now the carriage was drawing up at the hotel door. The manager, the staff, were waiting on the steps as if for Royalty. Sir William descended first, then Nelson, and together they aided Lady Hamilton's graceful descent, the magnificent folds of fur falling about her. Fanny drew back from the window and stood by the fire. Five, 10 minutes passed. Of course there would be greetings questions, answers. Then feet in the passage outside; a "This way, my Lord," and the door opened. He came in-if her life depended upon it she could not have moved a limb. Her ery agitation froze her, and it was the old man who got at him first and clasped his hand, and put a feeble arm about his shoulders and kissed him on the cheek. He did not even see her in the darkening nadows of the room.

"My dear, dear father!" he said Oh, well-remembered voice: Oh, pain and joy unspeakable! "It's home to see you again. Is Fanny She heard the quick startle in cheek. It was a moment of agoning embarrassment to her. His father grasped his shoulder and led him to a chair by the fire and poured out all the questions she would have asked if she had ared. But, indeed, her heart was sear to bursting. She had been rhidden to meet him, but that bold beautiful woman had shared all the honors of his return and was in London also now, waiting her time. All the Palermitan stories crowded on her mind. Would not one think that a wife who had nevoffended had more claim than

She asked him in her soft voice thether he was well; whether he had any pain in what was left of his arm?—the pathetic empty sleeve wrung her heart. She had gathered up the little scraps of amily news to tell him; the Bolions, the Matchams, his brothers, William and Maurice, would be coming up next day. Yes, they were all well, all full of eagerness o see him. She did her best, God knows, but what can a woman do so cruelly hampered? It all sounded stiff and unnatural. He took it for anger and answered with cold

The lights must be lit; he wished to see how his father looked and presently there was the mild il-lumination of wax candles. She felt rather than saw him stealing a

"Well, we must prepare for dinner!" he said at last, getting up. "I trust my dear father will enjoy meeting two of the most eminent men and women in the world. I Fanny. Which is my room?"

- She moved forward silently and led the way to a large and London-dingy bedroom adjoining the sitting room. He looked with disfavor at the great draped four-poster with its drab curtains "I can't sleep in that catafalque!

"I want fresh air. Make them put me up a camp bed near the door, or better still in the room adjoining, for I am often disturbed at night, and you look as if you needed your sleep. Better give the

She rang the bell and gave it, and his "traps," as he called them, were put in the room which opened, hotel-fashion, into hers. For the first time she recovered herself a little and carried her head higher. That insult, for so she took it, fired even her gentleness. He left the door open between them and talked while she changed her dress for dinner. Indeed she had little to change it to. She had supposed it would be as usual by a day or two in London and did not make very ex-tensive preparations. But she had black satin with lace and a bandeau of rows of seed-pearl for her hair, and a chain set with small pearls which had been a gift from his prize money. She dressed herself to the best advantage and looked in the muslin-draped glass and thought she would pass. More what use to compete with a beauty of European notoriety? She did not ask his opinion when her been accustomed to do.

They went together into the sitting room when they were ready. It was now brilliant with lights, and a well-spread table, and old Mr. Nelson in the ceremonious evening dress of a clergyman of the old school, and Nelson in silk stockings and orders, and obsequious waiters hovering about and making conversation impossible.

It seemed to Fanny that she could not collect her thoughts it was dream-like, she had not a word And now the door opened with a

Emma trailed in in the gorgeous gold gown of Palermo, too splendid by far for so simple an occasion, girdled below her full bosom with a girdle in the Directory fashion, set with diamonds.

That Dread Disease

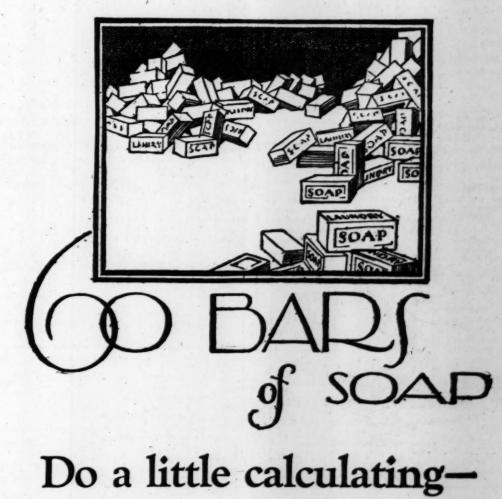

Doctors tell us that Diabetes is a serious disease—most treacherous in middle life. Intense thirst, body weakness and loss of flesh are the symptoms. However, immediate danger is caused by the accumulation of certain acids in the blood. Help check the accumulation of these acids by drinking Mountain Valley Water from Hot Springs, Arkansas—its alkaline minerals seem to combine with the acids and render them harmless. It is prescribed as an aid by physicians.

Come to our office and examine our files of hundreds of letters from former sufferers—read what leading doctors say. Phone us.
